

CAREER ACCELERATOR WORKSHOP

BUILD INSIGHT & SELF-AWARENESS FOR YOUR HIGH-POTENTIAL LEADERS

NextUp

NextUp Career Accelerator is a one-day workshop for NextUp partner companies offering participants valuable insight into who they are, and how their strengths and weaknesses impact their work as a leader. By combining two powerful customized assessments – NextUp’s custom version of Center for Creative Leadership’s (CCL) EQI 2.0 for emotional intelligence insights, and the CCL 360 for impactful 360 feedback – companies can offer high-potential leaders the insight they need to thrive.

The workshop also includes the development of a comprehensive Individual Development Plan, giving leaders concrete takeaways for sustained growth.

This workshop may be customized to include a dedicated company executive question and answer session, an executive panel discussion (which can be assembled by NextUp upon request), or additional leadership development modules. Executive coaching may also be added for a fee.

WORKSHOP OBJECTIVES

Gain insight into leadership style with comprehensive 360 feedback.

Develop stronger self-awareness with an emotional intelligence assessment, debriefed by a highly insightful Industrial/Organizational Psychologist.

Develop an Individual Development Plan to guide future growth.

“The feedback I received from peers was amazing.”

“These workshops are valuable tools. They help us stop along the way and reflect on how we can improve in our work and personal lives.”

“The information you receive from the EQI and the 360 gives you great insight on how others see you, and areas you need to improve on.”

“The program was fantastic. Not only did it provide inspiring thought leadership, but also tactical ways to improve leadership and executive skills.”

“I saw many of my co-workers really grow and emotionally connect to the material. I also gained extremely helpful insight into myself.”

“I really enjoyed the program, it has given me much-needed strategy and helped me push forward my career development.”
